What is the Liberal Arts Core?

It's a set of courses, typically in subjects like literature, history, philosophy, science, and the arts, designed to give you a broad understanding of the world and equip you with essential skills like critical thinking, communication, and problem-solving. For more information see the college catalog.

How do I find which classes are in my major?

Major class will begin with an abbreviation of your major. For instance BUSI represents a Business Major class. For more information see the college catalog.

Items to Keep in mind

- Some majors, depending on credit hours required, may allow for elective courses in the first year.
- The average course load is 15 credit hours per semester (or 30 total per year). A total of 120 credit hours is required for graduation.
