

Greetings, esteemed music educators,

I am excited to announce that the North Central West Virginia Honor Band will be returning for its tenth year this fall. Watching this event grow and evolve over time from the perspective of a WVWC music department student, local educator, and now as the Director has been an immense honor. This event would not be possible without the local bands who send student representatives of the highest quality, and I have no doubt this year will be any different.

Attached you will find a description of the event, a blank recommendation form, and a letter regarding financial assistance. These materials will be due by October 1st, and the selection results will be determined and submitted to the directors by Wednesday, October 8th. Please keep in mind that I will do my best to provide this opportunity to as many students as possible while maintaining a balanced ensemble. I will be taking your recommendations very seriously, so please do your best to provide as much information as possible about your students that you recommend.

All further correspondence surrounding this year's event will continue via email. You are always welcome to reach out with any questions.

Musically,
