

SPECIAL TOPICS COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MAY TERM 2019

INDS-188-01 Mesoamerican Culture (3 cr)

Instructor: Megan Leight

This course explores the cultural expression of Mesoamerica. Beginning with early Pre-Columbian history and working well into the Colonia Periods, this course examines the Olmec, Teotihuacan, Zapotec, Maya and Aztec cultures.

Satisfies Non-Western Cultural Studies requirement for general education

SUMMER TERM 2019

BUSI-288-01 Women and Leadership (3 cr)

Instructor: Susan Aloï

Though women have made remarkable progress over the last 100 years, they still face unique challenges in becoming recognized leaders in business, education, politics, and other arenas. This course will (1) explore the historical position and portrayal of women in society, (2) discuss the research on differing leadership styles of men and women, (3) analyze the findings that demonstrate the benefits of more feminine approaches in organizations, and (4) propose strategies to facilitate inclusion and social justice for women.

Satisfies U.S. Cultural Studies requirement for general education

HIST-188-01 WVWC History (3 cr)

Instructor: Paula McGrew

Exploring the history of WV Wesleyan College, the people who have dreamed us into existence and the giants who have made us who we are.

Satisfies history requirement for general education

INDS-188-01 Mesoamerican Culture (3 cr)

Instructor: Megan Leight

This course explores the cultural expression of Mesoamerica. Beginning with early Pre-Columbian history and working well into the Colonia Periods, this course examines the Olmec, Teotihuacan, Zapotec, Maya and Aztec cultures.

Satisfies Non-Western Cultural Studies requirement for general education